

CMC Score Reading Club is taking off ! -June 23rd

The Canadian Music Centre (CMC) would like to cordially invite you to attend the next session of the Score-Reading Club. The immense success of the inaugural session saw a nation-wide reaction, and an overwhelming show of interest in the idea. Vancouver is proud to be the initiator of the club.

Join our guest presenters Stefan Sunandan Honisch, Mark McGregor and Jeffrey Ryan as they offer their insights on three monumental, yet lesser-known contemporary works written predominantly within the past decade. Included in this session are presentations of works by Imant Rammish and mark Anthony Turnage. The selected works will be contrasting in style and genre. The attendants will have a chance to see the scores, hear the music and share their thoughts on the selected pieces.

CMC's upcoming session is scheduled for June 23rd, 2010 from 2-4 pm at The Canadian Music Centre Office (837 Davie Street, Vancouver, BC). Complimentary refreshments will be provided by the CMC.
